Update from Leadership Team

September is an invigorating and hopeful time here at LCBI High School. With arrival of our students comes energy and life—the summer-time quiet of rooms and hallways traded for the boisterous noise of young people busily forging this year's iteration of our LCBI community.

Our staff is filled with energy and excitement as we enter into another academic year. We joyfully welcome some new members to our staff: Curtis Akre, who joins us in the capacity of Boy's Dorm Staff; Carla Chabot, who will serve as our Business Manager; and Leah Adelman, who is serving her Teaching Internship under the tutelage of Jennifer Ridgwell.

Our enrolment numbers this year, 57 students at Opening Day, will present some challenges this year: it will be a challenge to field all of our sports teams; to run all of our planned activities; and above all this will pose financial challenges to our operations throughout the year.

At the same time, surveying this group of young people, including one student each from Brazil, Barbados and Ukraine, we know that this will be a great year! God has called this group of students to this place for a reason, and they are brimming with possibility.

Through whatever this year has in store for us we are eagerly engaging in the tasks set before us, working in the knowledge that the ministry of LCBI High School rests comfortably in God's hands—hands of blessing and growth for this group of students and staff gathered in this place.

We wish to thank all of our supporters and Alumni for your rich and ongoing support and prayers—you are a real blessing to our LCBI community! We look forward to you joining us for Homecoming 2014 in October.

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me."
Philippians 4:13 NRSV

Sincerely,

Principal Leanne Engen and Pastor Chris Bishopp

Homecoming Challenge for Honoured Classes

Each year at Homecoming, members of the honoured classes gather to celebrate friendships from their days at LCBI. They also generously support the present work here with class donations. This year, classes were challenged to raise $10,000 ! Even if it's not your honour year, challenge your class to raise some funds for the school. Together we can show the current student body that we believe in their future and God's work among them.

Call for support and prayer

New faces, new beginnings, a new school year. Your support through prayer and prayerful donations can make the difference in the life of students and staff at LCBI in 2014-15 and beyond. The Fund Development Committee would like to thank you for your support in the past, encouraged that you will continue to make possible the life-changing work at LCBI. Consider setting up pre-authorized donations with a CAFT form available at the office. Let's make this year one of the best ever!
