Graduation 2015

1 Corinthians 2:9 "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him." This May, LCBI celebrated Grad 2015 with 21 graduates, six young men and fifteen young women. Latham Hamlin and Tova Berg were voted to the roles of class presidents and led the class as they prepared for grad weekend. Justine Jorgensen took on the role of valedictorian delivering her address Sunday afternoon.

It was a fun filled weekend as we laughed, cried, and made countless memories together. A few of our favorite memories from the weekend were when we handed Mother's Day roses to our lovely moms, danced our hearts out in the grand march. The many toasts and speeches that were given, the great talent show our class put on, relaxing and hanging out together at our grad barbeque before the crazy weekend started stand out as well. The touching memories that our classmates shared with their parents and family members. We almost had to spend our grad weekend in a power outage, but thankfully the power came back on just in time. We had an amazing weekend and would like to thank everyone who came out and celebrated this special milestone with us.

Daughters and Sons of LCBI ... Greetings!

Janet and I have been welcomed so warmly, it is hard not to just bask. LCBI has not changed its environment of caring and heart-felt energy, ensuring our students receive the best we can offer in everything we do. As a former student, I recognize that dorm staff, teachers, and LCBI parents have cared for me and my main purpose is to return that care.

I believe, as resurrection people, Christ calls us to this purpose; that we not mistake our best intentions for the gospel but share the Gospel as the announcement of our individual and corporate redemption and resurrection. We can hold high regard for excellence in all we do and we should ... yet the bottom line, for all staff and students, is to know they are loved by God and by each other.

In order for our students to grow into renaissance people; growing and maturing in faith, achieving high academics, participating in performance sport, participating in expressive arts, and witnessing through a comprehensive worldview, we need to sustain our secure emotional, physical, and mental environment. Today's generations look for the security of community to live and then seek work and school in the place they chose to be. More than ever, LCBI, our home away from home, needs to be the community where we are not afraid to make mistakes, challenge the future and grow in love with our Lord.

I believe in challenging every student to be a Christ-sharing leader of the modern economy; through every class we teach, every function we hold and every word we speak.

Daughters and Sons of LCBI ... be vigilant and vigorous in your prayers and support.

Wayne

Starting in September of 2015, LCBI will begin the process of reformatting the Beacon.

We continue to work towards effectively stewarding the resources of both the school and of the earth. We strongly encourage you to sign up to receive the Beacon by email. Not only does this get the news into your hands sooner, it saves the cost of printing and postage. Please ensure that the office has an up to date email address for your family and sign up to receive the Beacon by email! Contact Darci - office@lcbi.sk.ca.

Bye Bye Birdie

The Spring Musical, Bye Bye Birdie, took place at the end of May. With nearly half of the student body participating in the show, it was quite the event. It was a very fun show to watch with catchy tunes that left the entire crowd humming as they left the theatre.

Saturday Evening Program:

Guest Alumni presenters and performers will be featured along with recognition of the Honoured Classes. Coffee and goodies follow the program in the gym.

Check out the full schedule and make it a weekend to celebrate our wonderful school!

LCBI Athletes at Provincial Track and Field

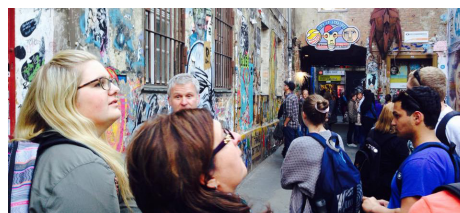

Again this year, LCBI was able to send 7 athletes to Track and Field Provincials. This was the second largest team in the West Central Division which has some schools considerably larger than LCBI. We want to congratulate all of the athletes for making it to provincials with special recognition to Justine Jorgensen. Justine won silver in the long jump, only 1cm off the gold medal jump, and bronze in the 4x100m relay where she competed with other athletes from the West Central Division.

Other athletes to advance to provincials were: Knut Lokken, Josh Bowey, Emily Downey, Sarah Hicks Colby Haugen, and Maia Jorgensen. Thanks to the hard work of coaches Jesse Sorenson, Rick Delainey and BA (Bryan Akre).

Educational Trip to Europe

In mid May, Mr. Delainey and Mrs. Linsley led a trip of students and alumni to Germany, Holland, Belgium and France in the middle of May. The trip was developed around the premise of Canada and its participation in the two world wars; however, the group did get exposure to other periods like the French Revolution while in Paris and the Cold War in Berlin. While each member of the tour team took something different from the trip, everyone was quite affected by both the visit to the Sachsenhausen concentration camp and the trip to Anne Frank's house in Amsterdam.

Update from the Fund Development Committee

The Friends of LCBI Art Show and Sale, April 17 and 18 was a great success! Six artists were featured: Kathryn Gorectke, Kevin Hastings, Jordan Miller, Dale Hicks, Holly Dyrland, and Lynne Hermanson. It was a successful weekend with a variety of art forms for the guests to enjoy, a time for reconnecting with LCBI alumni and exposing the school to some new patrons. About $3600 was raised for LCBI through door fees, a silent auction and donations. We look forward to hosting another art event in the future.

Coming this fall, another great fundraising event, Running With the Herd Fun Run. Join us to run or walk 1km, 2km or 5km along the beautiful South Saskatchewan river in Outlook.
